"The good and holy custom of stabilizing the virgins in the Company of Saint Ursula, on the feast of Saint Catherine each year, was introduced in this way in memory of Blessed Angela's happy return from Jerusalem to Brescia on this very day, and because on this day in 1535 she began this devout Company, in order to encourage these virgins to imitate Saint Catherine, who (as the histories say) was espoused to Christ our Lord by his own hand" (from the Second Libro Generale).
